Don't let a rigorous schedule or frequent relocations keep you from a better future. At University of Phoenix, military professionals earn their bachelor's or master's degree in the most efficient way possible. By attending one class per week, most students can complete their degree in 2 to 3 years.

As a regionally accredited university, and a long-time member of Servicemembers Opportunity College (SOC), University of Phoenix is recognized and approved by all branches of the Military for tuition assistance, and is approved for veterans training. Military training and prior professional training can qualify for college credits.

Established in 1976, University of Phoenix is the largest private accredited university in the United States. With over 120 campuses across the country, and Internet instruction, you can complete your degree no matter where the military sends you.
